THE FUTURE OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

The campaign of 1870 ended in the victory of the Republican party, but not of the Republican party as it was known to its founders. It ended in the defeat of the Democratic party, but not of the Democratic party of four years back. This Republican party shandmored it od pirinciples, and took no with new; it three saids it is alvocacy of policies built on the broad faith that gave birth to the party; the faith that human rights, the rights of life, pirity and the pursual of heppinesse the foundation stones of liberty and our republican institutions, are superior to the rights of property; and it became the champion of property rights and the advocace of policies calculated not to conservo the general weal, but to advance the interests of one class to the detriment of all others; the advocate of policies calculated to an right the fortunste preservors of one particular kind of property—money and debie—at the express of all others owns of property, of all these eneaged in the production of wealth.

the party of preperty rights and human astery. It had its bittin in the belial, firmly engraven on many hearis, that all men have an inharent right to the arityment of the fruits of their told, and that to deprive men of such fruits is an Injustice that cannot be justified on the ground of vested rights of property, sither in man or his labor, however long established by ensoun. All men have a right to the free disposal of their labor, and no man has the right to deny to any other the enjoyment of each right. Such was the loundation stone on which was builded the Republican party. Entrusted with power, it engaged in the work of freeling 4,00,000 of near of saves; it engaged in the vork of securing to all men the fullest enjoyment of the fruits of their told. But it is no longer engaged in this work; it has thrown this work aside, and the has engaged in the work of building up an oligarchy of wealth, to which labor must pay tribute. It has taken no with a policy

Any slep towards such a surrender of sovereign power, as the surrender the banks to the Government of the right to issue paper money would must be atenuously opposed. It will not do to rest in idlaness until danger is upon us in all its force. We must at once prepare to belief or store that have in twee the weakening, of the control of the Government or wer the issue of money. The guardinaship of the rolums of snoney ries with it the guardinaship over our assure of value, and the power the Government to control the volums of snoney.

o gitard over tie stability of our measure of value, must be strengthened, not weakened. To do this, the right to the issue of all kinds of money must be reserved to the Government. In place of doing away with our greenback currency, and filling its place with banks currency, we must do away with our bank currency, and till its place with national currency. It is the Demonstrate party were will enough the party of the people, it must make this one of its ends. The control over our issues of money by the National Government is demonsted in the interest of our producing classes, in the tolerest of those who cannot be secured in the enjoy ment of the fruits. To protect all men against the despolment of the fruits of their olds. To protect all men against the despolment of the fruits of their olds. To protect all men against the despolment of the fruits of their olds. The control was a supersection of the strong, that government exists. The fulliment of this duty no government that aims to protect the interest of all its citizens, quality and without perjudice, can seek to avoid. To secure an equality of chance in this world's race to all me our Republic was constituted. It follows that no party that would aliun the responsibilities devived on a Government of contituded can hope for access as the party of the people.

Without a Peer," Writes a regular subscriber, woh has read it for many years, of the Twice-a-week issue of the

St. Louis Globe-Democrat and this is the unanimou verdict of its more than half a million readers. It is beyond all comparison the biggest, best and cheapest na-tional news and family Journal published in America. It is strictly kepublican in politics, strictly Republican in politics, but it is above all a newspaper, and gives all the news promptly, accurately and impartially. It is indispensable to the Farmer, Merchant or Professional man who desires to keep thoroughly poeted, but has not the time to read a large Daily paper, while its great variety of wel-selected reading matter pakes it an invaluable Home. makes it an invaluable Home and Family Paper.
